

MAD RUSH CAUSED PANIC

Crowds at the Unveiling of a McKinley Statue at Columbus Become Unmanageable

MRS. LONGWORTH WAS THE UNWITTING CAUSE

Wild Desire to See President's Daughter Resulted In Upsetting All Plans—Proceedings Had to Be Called Off.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 14.—With a panic threatened in a crowd estimated at 50,000 people, surging about the stand erected in the capitol grounds, frantic to secure a glimpse of Mrs. McKinley, the president's daughter, the exercises arranged for the dedication of the McKinley monument were suddenly terminated this afternoon, after the statue of the martyred president had been hurriedly unveiled by Mrs. Longworth.

The prompt action of the committee on arrangements was regarded as most fortunate, for the crowd was beyond control, and the shrieking of women and children who were caught in the crush was rapidly working the crowd into a frenzy. Many women fainted and were carried out of the crowd by the police. Two were so badly hurt that they had to be removed in an ambulance. Both will recover.

Mrs. Longworth's Conduct. Throughout the exciting scenes Mrs. Longworth remained cool and self-possessed, but afterwards she said: "It was the worst crush I ever witnessed. I have seen nothing like it in my trip around the world."

Mobbed by a Crowd. Mr. and Mrs. Longworth had an exciting experience in escaping from the crowd at the capitol. From the speaker's stand they went through a window overlooking the platform into the governor's office, but they were soon surrounded by a mob of people. They were driven to the Hotel Hartman. Later they took a train for Cincinnati.

Arrangements Were Made. The committee on arrangements expected an enormous crowd on account of the presence of Mrs. Longworth, but in view of the solemnity and dignity of the occasion, they believed the crowd would easily be kept in restraint. Under ordinary circumstances the police arrangements would have been adequate, but the officers found quickly that they were powerless to cope with the crowd.

How It Occurred. Tiers of seats had been constructed across the entire west front of the capitol with the speaker's stand in the center. Four thousand tickets were issued for these seats to invited guests and all were occupied. The McKinley monument stands at the west entrance to the grounds, facing the street, and the crowd was packed into this space between the speaker's stand and the monument. The exercises were set for 2:30 and began promptly at 3 o'clock.

Beginning of Panic. It was not until the band was playing the overture that the danger of a panic was noticed. Then some women in the crowd began to scream for help and several fainted and were carried up to the stand. Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden rose to deliver the invocation, but he had spoken only a few sentences when the roar of voices forced him to stop. Governor Harris then attempted to quiet the crowd. "Keep back," he shouted, "you are crushing these people in front to death." The governor's voice could not be heard twenty feet away, however, on account of the din.

Mrs. Longworth Appeared. The commotion became so alarming that those on the stand asked Mrs. Longworth to come forward, in the hope that a glimpse of her might satisfy the crowd. She came to the front of the stand. It was seen at once that something must be done and it was decided to unveil the statue at once. Mrs. Longworth then pulled the ribbon attached to wires which drew the flag covering the statue aside. A man hoisted on another man's shoulders grasped the ribbons and the wire and they were quickly torn into fragments by the seekers.

The crush was stopped for a few moments but it soon was renewed and Mrs. Longworth came again to the front of the platform and bowed to the throng. In the meantime, however, the committee on arrangements had decided to defer the addresses until evening at Memorial hall, and as soon as Mrs. Longworth retired that announcement was made. The people struggling for their lives around the stand cheered, but a storm of blows came from people on the outside of the crowd who did not understand the situation. At Memorial Hall.

The program of exercises, which had been arranged for the unveiling of the monument, was carried out at Memorial hall tonight. The speakers were William R. Day, assistant justice of the Supreme court of the United States; General Joseph McKay of Brooklyn, N. Y., national commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.

Mrs. McKinley, widow of the late president, was unable to attend the dedication exercises. She was represented by her niece, Mrs. Ida McKinley Day.

Justice Day's Speech. Justice Day spoke of William McKinley as a type of the best possibilities of American life, of his exalted character and his services to the country, concluding an eloquent address as follows:

"In the fullness of life, with a message of kindness yet on his lips, meeting the people who delighted to testify that affection and appreciation which was his highest reward for faithful and unselfish service, he was felled to the earth for no other offense than that in his person he represented the head of the nation and stood for liberty regulated by law, and not for that unbridled license which knows no respect for the laws of God or man. "He lives in the love of his countrymen. His memory grows brighter with the years; the nobleness of his life, the sublime heroism of his death shall never perish from the thoughts of men. He lives in the thousands of homes where comfort and domestic peace reflect the wisdom of his statesmanship. He lives in the beneficence of his example at every hearth where succeeding generations shall recount the strength and beauty of his character and tell again the story of his life."

A People's Tribute. The splendid memorial may be termed the poor man's tribute to the late president, as half of the funds were secured largely by popular subscription through the Columbus Dispatch. The legislature appropriated $25,000 of the $50,000 which the memorial cost.

Herman A. McNeill, the noted sculptor, of New York, executed the likeness. The memorial is in the form of a semi-circle, in the center of which is the pedestal surmounted by a figure of the dead president nine feet four inches in height. On either side of the pedestal is a mural relief representing industry and at its side is a boy, depicting education. To the left is a model of a woman, typifying prosperity, with a girl beside her representing peace. These figures with the statue are of bronze, while the memorial pedestal is of Vermont granite.

The McNeill statue is considered to be the McNeill's masterpiece thus far.

CANTON, O., Sept. 14.—In commemoration of the fifth anniversary of the death of President McKinley, Postmaster General Cleveland today ordered a beautiful wreath placed upon the late president's bier. Mrs. McKinley spent the day quietly at her home on North Market street.

VICTIMS OF TWO STORMS

Nebraska County Swept By a Tornado.

Four Deaths and the Injury of Seven People Reported as Result.

TECUMSEH, Neb., Sept. 14.—Two violent and seemingly distinct storms, visited Johnson county this afternoon, resulting in the death of four persons, fatal injury to two and painful injury of five others. The dead: O. A. GUEL, aged 40; leaves widow and five children.

AUGUST ZEMAN, aged 45; leaves widow and three children. ROY CARMAN, boy of 17. GEORGE KOEHLER, school boy of 14.

The first three were killed by lightning near the town of Elm Creek. A party of three was at work on the farm of Henry Walters when a rain and electric storm came up. Four of the men crawled under the threshing machine, which was shattered by a bolt of lightning, and were instantly killed. Henry Walters Jr. was badly shocked and burned but will probably recover.

SECRETARY OF WAR TAFT WILL PROCEED TO CUBA

His Mission Is The Result Of Long Conference Held At Oyster Bay Yesterday

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT HAS SENT A MESSAGE TO THE CUBAN MINISTER AT WASHINGTON, CALLING UPON THE CUBANS TO RESTORE PEACE UNDER PENALTY OF ARMED INTERVENTION BY THE UNITED STATES AS PROVIDED FOR IN THE TREATY—SAILORS OF THE DENVER WITHDRAWN FROM HAVANA.

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 14.—After a protracted conference with the Secretary of War Taft, Acting Secretary of State Bacon, and Secretary of the Navy, Secretary Taft, President Roosevelt tonight addressed an important communication to Cuba and arranged to send Secretary Taft and Bacon to that island on Sunday to make a thorough investigation of conditions there and lend their influence to restore peace.

The communication is addressed to the Cuban minister to the United States, Senor Quesada. It is an impassioned plea to Cuba to realize her responsibilities as a self-governing republic, and to restore peace in the island. Her attention is called to the certain language to the responsibility which the United States bears to the island and the certainty that that responsibility will necessarily be exercised should peace not be restored.

The president says he has certain information that the peace of the island is menaced and that American property has been destroyed. Secretary Taft and Bacon will leave for Cuba on Sunday. They will go by rail to Key West, Fla., and from there the journey to Havana will be completed on a naval vessel, probably the Des Moines.

A Long Conference. The conference which resulted in the Cuban decision began at Sagamore Hill shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon and continued until 10 o'clock tonight. At its conclusion, Secretary Taft, Secretary Bacon and Bacon left for New York and will go to Washington tomorrow.

Secretary Taft said as he left Oyster Bay that he had no idea as to the length of his visit to Cuba. He indicated that there would be no haste in the investigation, which would be thorough. Aside from this information, no information will be divulged by those attending the conference.

The President's Letter. Following is President Roosevelt's letter:

Oyster Bay, Sept. 14, 1906. "My Dear Senor Quesada: In this crisis in the affairs of the Republic of Cuba, I write you, not merely because you are the minister of the Cuban republic accredited to this government, but because you and I were intimately drawn together at the time when the United States intervened in the affairs of Cuba with the result of making her an important nation. "You know how sincere my affection and admiration and regard for Cuba are; you know that I never have done and never shall do anything in reference to Cuba save with such sincere regard for her welfare. You also know the pride I felt because it came to me as president to withdraw the American troops from the island of Cuba, and to officially proclaim her independence, and to wish her Godspeed in her career as a free republic.

A Word to Cuba. "I desire now through you to say a word of solemn warning to your people, whose well I wish I am. "For seven years Cuba has been in a condition of profound peace and of steadily growing prosperity. For four years, this peace and prosperity have obtained under her own independent government. Her peace, prosperity, and independence are now menaced, for of all possible evils that can befall Cuba, the worst is the evil of anarchy, into which civil war and revolutionary disturbances will assuredly throw her. "Whoever is responsible for armed revolution and outrage, whoever is responsible in any way for the condition of affairs that now obtains, is an enemy of Cuba and doubly heavy is the responsibility of the man, affecting to be the special champion of Cuban independence, who takes any step which will jeopardize that independence. For there is just one way in which Cuban independence can be secured, and that is for the Cuban people to show their ability to continue in their path of peaceful and orderly progress.

What Is Expected. "This nation asks nothing of Cuba, save that it shall continue to develop as it has developed during the past seven years; that it shall know and practice the orderly liberty which has assuredly brought an ever increasing measure of peace and prosperity to the beautiful region of the Antilles. Our intervention in Cuban affairs will only come if Cuba herself shows that she has fallen into the insurrectionary habit; that she lacks the self-restraint necessary to peaceful self-government, and that her contending factions have plunged the country into anarchy.

Must Avoid Anarchy. "I solemnly adjure all Cuban patriots to band together to sing all differences and personal ambitions, and to remember that the only way that they can preserve the independence of their republic is to prevent the necessity of outside intervention, by rescuing it from anarchy or civil war. I earnestly hope that this word of adjuration

HUNGARIANS' TRIBUTE TO GEORGE WASHINGTON

Statue to the Great American Will Be Unveiled at Buda Pest Tomorrow.

BUDAPEST, Sept. 14.—Consul General Chester declares that the advice received by him from the state department at Washington concerning the unveiling of the Washington statue here on September 10th merely instructed him not to attend the ceremony officially and make no reference whatever to Charles S. Francis, the American ambassador to Austria-Hungary. Chester therefore will be present at the unveiling in the capacity of an American citizen only.

The Hungarian government regards the unveiling as a sort of family affair, uniting the Hungarians in the United States with the motherland. The occasion is being made as purely Hungarian as possible.

In a published interview today explaining his attitude in relation to the Washington statue unveiling, Consul General Chester suggests that possibly the government disapproves of the inscription on the monument: "In memory of George Washington, American Magyri, 1806."

He adds: "I am not representing in Buda Pest American magyri, but only native or naturalized Americans. The erection of the monument being a private affair, the presence of an official American representative is unnecessary. The American government does not mean by this order to offend the Hungarian government."

It is semi-officially pointed out that the Hungarian government is not represented officially and that Francis Kosmuth, Hungarian minister of commerce, only attends as a party leader. This is advanced as the reason why Ambassador Francis was not invited.

EDWARD'S TELEGRAM TO GENERAL MIN'S WIDOW

Message Is Said to Have Been Hoax and Investigation Is Progressing.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 14.—Diplomatic and administration circles are here that a telegram purporting to have been sent by King Edward to the widow of General Min three days after the assassination of the general at Peterhof, was not genuine.

The message, which bore the date of August 28th, was as follows: "I am overwhelmed by your faithful bereavement and beg you, madame, to accept my profound condolences. "An investigation is in progress to determine the origin and motive of the telegram. The investigation has been conducted very quietly, on account of the affect the disclosure is likely to have upon the royal personage concerned and scarcely an inkling of the matter has reached the press. The motive of the hoax is difficult to conjecture, though a message of sympathy relative to the fate of an agent of repression might not be without effect in such an internal combat as is going on in Russia, or on the movement for an Anglo-Russian entente.

GOLDFIELD'S WAR IS OVER

Miners and Mineowners Have Made Terms.

Details of Settlement Are Withheld, But Pleased Both Parties.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., Sept. 14.—The labor difficulty at Goldfield is settled. The mines, which have been idle for several days, will resume operations in the morning. At 5:30 o'clock this evening the tooling of an automobile in Goldfield announced the return of the joint committee of mine owners and union miners which had been at Tonopah since yesterday afternoon. It was not long before the automobile was surrounded by hundreds of anxious citizens and miners eager for any news that might be given out.

CONGRESS OF CUBA ACTED

Special Session Gave Palma Authority to Take Steps to Crush Rebel Movement.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO THE CUBAN PEOPLE

Present Agitation Threatens the Ruin of the Republic and Is a Blow at the Prosperity of the Island.

HAVANA, Sept. 14.—The extra session of congress called by President Palma completed at one sitting the business for which it was summoned, namely, the granting to President Palma of the fullest powers not already constitutionally possessed by the executive for carrying on the work, including the right to appropriate any public funds for war purposes, revoking appropriations voted at the preceding session of congress in order to permit the diversion of money to the prosecution of the war, and authorizing the increase of the rural guards to 10,000 and the artillery to 2000 men. This triples the former force of rural guards and doubles the artillery.

The measures, which were combined in one blanket bill, were passed by party vote, the Liberals and Independents refraining from voting and the Liberal Nationalists voting with the Moderates.

President Palma's Message. President Palma submitted a brief message, principally devoted to deploring the conduct of the opposition, whom he charged with responsibility of causing the rebellion. The message contained no recommendations, beyond suggestion that congress approve all recent executive decrees and take such steps as may be deemed advisable for the ending of the war.

The president regretted that the first extra session of congress should have been necessitated by a disturbance of public order and said nobody would have expected that, four years after the inauguration of the republic, it would have been in the midst of a rebellion threatening the stability of the government, causing the sincerity of Cuban professions to be distrusted by the world and endangering the independence and sovereignty which had been purchased so dearly with the blood of thousands of Cubans after long years of cruel sacrifices.

Who Would Believe It? "Who," asked the president, "would have supposed that with the prosperity of the country and the well being of the people advancing, with millions in the treasury, after paying $19,000,000 to the army of liberation, and investing $11,000,000 in public improvements, and with such splendid credit abroad, there would be Cubans who would conspire to change the constitutional order by placing armed force, violence and anarchy before the law, order and peace, to the country's shame and sorrow."

The message sketched the events of the revolution, the imprisonment of alleged conspirators and the inadequacy of the military force, and said it would not be directed to send more soldiers from Havana. The revolution had found the government without sufficient arms, ammunition or horses, and the administration had done the best it could in providing these, enlisting volunteers, organizing militia, etc. The message continued: "The growth of the rebellion has been such that we cannot with our resources prevent rebel forces scattered over an extensive area from entering towns and destroying property."

HAVANA, Sept. 14.—The railroads are tied up, no trains leaving Havana. This is a particular hardship to hundreds of country families, who were coming to the city for safety. Telegraphic communication is also badly paralyzed.

Reports of the capture of Cienfuegos are persistent but the absence of telegraphic communication makes it impossible to verify them.

MADE NEW RECORD FOR FAST SWIMMING

One and Three Fifths Seconds Shaved from 220 Yards Performance.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14.—C. M. Daniels of the New York Athletic club, holder of many amateur swimming records, today lowered his own and the world's record for 220 yards at Langhams Lake where the second day's program of the national swimming championships were decided. The New Yorker set the new mark at 2:42 2-5, breaking his own record by 1 3-5 seconds.

Fifty spectators were precipitated into the water this afternoon by the breaking down of a platform. Many saved themselves by clinging to the wreckage of the platform and others swam ashore and dried themselves in the sun. Nobody was drowned or hurt.

Australia, Favors British Goods. MELBOURNE, Sept. 14.—The commonwealth house of representatives today adopted a resolution giving a preference of 10 per cent to British goods imported in British ships.

INTERRED BY SIR KNIGHTS

Funeral of H. P. Hedges Under Masonic Auspices

Obsequies Are Impressive
With the Beautiful
Ritual.

With the impressive rites of the Masonic order, of which he was an honored member and exalted officer for many years, the remains of Henry Philip Hedges were laid to rest yesterday morning in the presence of a large gathering of old friends and amid a profusion of beautiful floral tributes. The services took place at

eral Took Place Yesterday Under the Baptist church, the services of which were conducted by the Rev. A. P. Brown.

Inside of the church the altar and dais were beautifully decorated with flowers, while on the casket numerous magnificent wreaths tendered with regard and sympathy by some of the leading men of the city. Among the finer floral offerings were those wrought in emblematic designs of Masonic bodies, the wreath of the Knights Templar being especially beautiful.

Lined up in a stately avenue outside of the family home were about 150 Knights Templar arrayed in the insignia of their order and wearing mourning badges, and through this line of his brother Masons passed the casket containing the remains of the deceased, as it was borne to the church a few yards distant. The Sir Knights then formed up in a long line facing the entrance on both sides of the pathway with members of other branches of the fraternity. As the casket was placed in the center of the aisle facing the altar, the knights with uncovered chapeau gravely gave the last salute to the dead with their swords, and the soft, solemn strains of Chopin's march died into silence. The music was then taken up by a male quartet composed of George Babcock, S. L. Platt, A. G. Walberg and C. L. Sherriffs, all of whom are members of the Masons.

The officiating clergyman opened his address with a brief biographical sketch of the deceased as follows: Henry Philip Hedges was born in Chesterton, Warren county, N. Y., August 20, 1824, and was of English ancestry. After attending the schools of his home town, he started out to follow agricultural pursuits, but became engaged later in lumbering and located in Seneca Falls, N. Y., continuing there until he accepted the position of superintendent of a saw mill at Ozaukee, Wis. He purchased land there and was prominent in public and private life until 1883, when he removed to Coldwater, Mich., and three years later found him a resident of Waubesa, Ia. Mr. Hedges married on June 8, 1850, Miss Mary Hunt of Coldwater, Mich. In 1881 he removed to Fresno for the benefit of his wife's health.

Fraternally, he was a Mason, and one of the most prominent of members, being of the 32nd degree. He was admitted in the Ozaukee lodge at Port Washington many years ago, and was a member of the Fresno lodge, No. 217, F. & A. M., Trigo chapter, No. 40, R. A. M., a charter member of the Fresno Commandery, No. 20, since its organization, and Iolam temple, A. A. served in the office of treasurer of the Knights Templar for many years and held the office at the hour of his death.

The speaker here referred feelingly to the home life of the dead man, who had lived in perfect harmony for fifty-six years with a worthy wife; and spoke of the fine family borne to the union. In his home, or with his neighbor, went on the clergyman, Mr. Hedges was ever the kindly husband, father, friend and acquaintance. Generosity and fellowship of man were diffused from his plenty to the needy.

"Such a life," followed said the Rev. Brown, "needs no eulogy, for it teaches its own lesson. As it sweetly lingers in the memories of the friends here assembled, they will profit by the example given them in such a career."

"You have seen," the preacher in his little tower looking out over a vast network of steel rails glimmering in the darkness of the night. With steady hand and practiced eye he moves a lever or a key here and there and guides the fast express through the labyrinth of tracks until it reaches the great union station in safety. And is our switchman in the tower above who guides our lives. He knows every track, and sends us safely at last into that wonderful station of heaven."

His concluding remarks were of comfort and consolation to the bereaved relatives, and he poured out a few touching words to the aged widow who was bereft of her helpmate of many years.

The services in Mountain View cemetery were in charge of the Knights Templar under Worshipful Master A. B. Smith, and assisted by other exalted officers, who carried out the beautiful ritual amid the bowed heads of the gathering and profound silence.

The pallbearers were J. A. Webster, D. D. Allison, F. M. Miller, C. C. Van Vollenburgh, W. R. Holland, and J. C. Pottle.

PETITION FOR ROAD IN
MT. CAMPBELL DISTRICT

A. L. Redick and numerous others have petitioned the Board of Supervisors for the laying out of a road in the district immediately to the south of Mt. Campbell in the foothill country to the east. The road will run north and south and will be a mile in length.

The petition was read before the meeting of the board yesterday, and was at once referred to County Surveyor Scott McKay, J. S. Miller and C. W. Matthews as viewers to report to the next meeting of the board.

COULDN'T RAISE $15
FOR HIS BOARD BILL

Frank Seane will have to go to Merced in charge of a constable to answer a charge of defrauding an innkeeper. He was arrested three days ago by Bailiff Russell on complaint of Constable McNamara, who stated that the man skipped out without paying his board bill in Merced. If the money was paid, stated the officer, the charge would be dropped, but Seane was unable to raise the sum and this fact was notified to the Merced people. He was arrested at his work at the Eagle packing house, and there was some suspicion of his theft of a watch from a room mate, but the allegation could not be substantiated.

WILL BUILD
ALMSHOUSE

Tax Rate to Be Fixed Next Monday.

Road Fund Will Be Specially Heavy Because of Many Washouts.

Next Monday is the time fixed by law for the determination of the county tax rate by the Board of Supervisors. The work of the board is now about finished for this month and the fixing of the tax rate will be the last work to be taken up before the usual adjournment.

A conference of the members of the board will take place today for the purpose of coming to an understanding about the various items to be included in the estimates. These will be made up in advance so that there will be no delay in the legal procedure on Monday.

A member of the board yesterday in speaking about the tax levy of this year said that the chief item in the tax levy this year would doubtless be the raising of money for the building of a county alms house.

"The need of an alms house has been notorious for a long time, and I think that the board will make an allowance for it this year. The indigents are living in quarters that have been condemned as unsanitary and unhealthy for years and the county should certainly make some better provision for them."

"My own estimate is that a suitable building cannot be erected for less than $30,000. I think it should be of brick, and enclosed, for these old people cannot be expected to go up and down stairs. It will be built on what is known as the county hospital property to the north of the infirmary."

"By the time the building is up and properly furnished, the expense will be about $35,000, as there is very little furniture in the alms house at the present time, that is worth anything. This, however, is the only special expense that I see we need to contract this year. There are no other buildings to be put up, and we will not make any allowance for bridges."

"One of the regular funds is bound to be heavier this year than before, and that is the road fund. The heavy rainfall and floods of this last season have washed away many bridges and driveways in the districts of Supervisors Beall, Mitchell and Burleigh, and the expense will be heavy. The other funds should be no higher than usual."

The offices of Auditor Barnum and Tax Collector Humeck are still very busy in preparing for the first tax collections, which are payable on the second Monday in October, the 16th. As the books were begun late on account of the earthquake and fire, the work has been heavy, and the deputies have been working early and late at night and on holidays to be ready for the first collections.

The new receipts will be very welcome in the county treasurer's office, as the most of the funds have been empty since the middle of August, and demands have had to be registered for collection later. This requires a payment of interest on the part of the county.

AN OLD IDEA

Shown to Be Absolutely False by Modern Science.

People used to think that baldness was one of those things which are handed down from generation to generation, from father to son—just like a family heirloom.

Science has shown the fallacy of this belief by proving that baldness is not a constitutional disease, but the result of a germ invasion of which only Herpicide can effectively rid the scalp.

Washing only cleans the scalp of dandruff, it doesn't kill the germs. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Neuch's Herpicide will do this in every case. It is also a delightful dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE REPUBLICAN

WOMAN CLAIMS GREAT GIFT

Endowed With Ability to Speak Unknown Tongue.

Mrs. D. E. Nichols Claims to Have Had Revelations from God.

Miraculously endowed with the ability to speak foreign tongues and her husband gifted with the science of healing by the laying of hands, Mrs. D. E. Nichols of No. 130 Edie street will soon start for Japan to spread the Christian faith.

D. E. Nichols is a dealer in shells. About two weeks ago he and his wife made a trip to Los Angeles. While there at a meeting of the Apostolic Faith followers, this wonderful thing happened. On their return a few days ago the news was soon circulated among their friends and neighbors, and to verify the truth of this most wonderful tale a Republican reporter called at the Nichols home yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Nichols received him and in a most modest way began to speak of their recent visit to Los Angeles, its results, and their intended trip. Mrs. Nichols then appeared upon the scene with a bunch of facts. She was most enthusiastic. "Yes, yes! The Lord he said, 'Then sitting down she continued, 'It all happened this way. While at Los Angeles a most wonderful thing happened. The good God gave unto me the gift of tongues. As an evidence of my faith he gave me the Chinese language and another tongue which no one there knows of. I do not even know what it is myself yet, except that I can speak it fluently. But the great God will reveal all to me and many more tongues."

"It is God's will that we go to Japan and spread the faith. Truly it is marvelous how the Lord has served us. I spent many weary months trying to learn Spanish and never accomplished it, but now in one single night the whole Chinese language was made known to me."

"Have you spoken this language with any Chinamen yet to make sure it is Chinese?" asked the reporter.

"Ah, that is just it, I did not have to, for I knew all. If I had lacked faith this gift never would have been given me. But I did speak to a Chinaman the other day on the street and he answered me."

Then Mrs. Nichols spoke for quite a spell in Chinese which was certainly was Chinese for all the reporter knew.

"And my other gift, I will speak that, too. We don't know what language it is yet, but the good God will lead us to it. I think it may be a Korean or Manchurian dialect from some of those unopened provinces and that God has given it to me to go forth and teach this people the path of light."

"My husband has not been given the gift of tongues, but for his faith he will receive the gift of healing by the laying of hands. The Lord has revealed this to me. It is truly wonderful. In Los Angeles one of our faith had had five languages revealed to him, all of which he spoke fluently. I saw this young man myself. There was another whom I did not see that had been given more than the different tongues with which to preach the faith among the Gentiles."

"We want to leave the 21st for Japan, but it is for the Lord to decide. We shall try and sell our home here, anyway, so as to be ready to go at the appointed time. In San Francisco I shall try and find out what my other language is and where it is spoken so that we can spread the faith there. If any such are found, Korie will be our first port on reaching Japan; from there on the Lord will lead."

Mr. Nichols was very modest. He did not talk much, but verified every statement his wife made. He, too, had faith in his ability to heal the sick by the laying of hands. "The Lord has been most gracious to us," he said, "and I am perfectly confident that he will give me this gift to work among the Gentiles. I also believe I shall receive the Japanese language before we reach that country."

DRAIN DITCH MUST BE DUG

Before Water Can Be Run on San Benito Avenue.

Sewer Troubles in Southern Part of City Causing Complaint.

The water from the San Joaquin Ice company's factory still runs upon Santa Clara avenue, the change of the current onto San Benito avenue, as recommended by the sewer committee of the Board of City Trustees having not yet been made. Thursday Assistant City Engineer Cronkrite made a survey of the territory. He found that the San Benito grade is several inches higher than that of Santa Clara avenue and considerably higher than that of the ice house.

"This does not mean, though," said Mr. Cronkrite, last night, "that the turning of the water onto San Benito avenue is not feasible. We will simply have to arrange for the digging of a trench and the backing up of the water to the proper level. It is easy to do. The trustees expect complaints, of course, from the people on San Benito avenue, but they are not as numerous as the people on Santa Clara avenue, and besides the change will get the water away from the Emerson school. That is one thing much to be desired, as a great deal of the complaint against the running of the water on the streets comes from the parents of school children. As to the water itself, Trustees Myers and Statham and Superintendent of Streets Spencer, who accompanied me in the investigation are convinced it is not unhealthy. It runs in a rapid stream and there is no odor whatever to it."

"The water will be conducted on San Benito or Monterey to K street, and there will be run south. As has already been demonstrated, before the water gets to the ungraded portion of the city, it loses itself in the sandy soil. There is no storm drain to carry it off, as is generally supposed."

A. B. Evans, manager of the San Joaquin Ice company, says that "with him of course the chief interest is getting rid of the water. However, he wants the water disposed of in the manner that will cause the least dissatisfaction all around, and he has conducted a little investigation on his own account, that has convinced him the turning of the water into the streets is causing more complaint than the overflowing of the sewers. Fifty or sixty people living on the streets into which the water has been turned have been interviewed, and all express the same opinion—the water in the streets is worse to bear than the overflowing of the sewers, which as a matter of fact has not been overcome. Many of them complain that their yards are still full of water overflowing from the sewers, and the streets in front of their houses are full of water from the ice houses."

To offset this, however, there is the statement of many people living west of the district affected by the water from the ice plants that the sewer conditions have been somewhat relieved. Even they say, however, that the relief is slight, and that they have no further complaint because they had been given to understand that no further relief could be given them till the completion of the new sewer.

Contractor S. B. Tombs is to resume work on the new sewer on Monday next. The water level is low enough for work to go ahead rapidly. Two additional cars of pipe have been received within the last day or two.

OLD MAN RESCUED FROM BURNING HOUSE

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Sept. 14.—J. Simas was perhaps fatally burned this morning, and but for the heroic rescue of Oscar Lowenthal, of San Francisco, would have been roasted alive during a fire caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove in the tailor shop of Patrick Hughes. Simas' shoe repairing shop adjoined the Hughes place and when the explosion occurred the two frame buildings were in flames within five minutes. Simas was so overcome with the heat and smoke that he was unable to open his door and escape. The firemen cut through the side of the house and Lowenthal rushed into the flames and dragged the old man to safety, just as the burning timbers collapsed. Both buildings were totally ruined.

PRINTER'S INK PAYS

REGISTER!

Counting today, there are just ten more working days in which to register. Unless you register within these ten days, you cannot vote. Registration is still very slack, and unless voters register very much faster the next ten days than they have the last ten, there will be nothing like a full vote polled. The county clerk's office is open every day and evening. The registry office at Republican headquarters in the Kinslin building, opposite Hughes hotel, on 1 street, is also open all day and from 7:30 until 9 or later at night. There will be no soliciting registration clerks drumming up voters in town this year. If you don't go and register yourself, you won't get registered. And you must do it within ten days.

Do it today; tomorrow will be Sunday and you can't.

CALHOUN OPEN SHOP.

The Los Angeles Times has a story that at a recent dinner, presided over by Patrick Calhoun, an organization was formed for the general establishment of the open shop in San Francisco. If the Times' news is correct, the Times need not rejoice. For the sort of open shop which Calhoun represents bears no resemblance to the alleged open shop which the Times preaches and practices. Patrick Calhoun believes in unions. In the "open shop" institutions managed by him, practically all the workmen are union, and he prefers it should be so. He would rather every man working for him joined the union, but he will not be a party to any coercion to compel men to join, nor will he delegate to the union the power to discharge any man from his job by discharging him from the union. He will not discharge any man except for cause, and will not permit any one else to discharge his men at all. In this sense, and to this extent, his shops are "open," as all shops ought to be. But in actual working, the union includes most of the workers, and controls the labor side of the whole situation.

This is the open shop that is really open—open to union and non-union men alike, but with full recognition of the fact that most laboring men will naturally prefer to belong to the union of their trade. If the unions would recognize this sort of open shop, practically all shops would be union shops. The chief reason an "open shop" is now usually a non-union shop is that union men refuse to work in it. Sometimes, as in the case of the Times, it is because a purblind fanatic is in charge, who imagines that a shop closed to union men, and denying to its workmen the right to choose their own representatives, is really "open." Such employers, of course, take pains to cultivate as a virtue, on their side, all the intolerance which they denounce as a vice on the other. There are union agitators with like limitations of view. Such men are not capable of comprehending what constitutes industrial fair play. But Patrick Calhoun is. If the open shop is established in San Francisco under his lead, it will be the genuine article. And it will be a good thing for everybody, employers, unions and public.

If you want to vote this fall, register now. If you don't want to vote, be sure you keep your mouth shut for four years, about high taxes or bad government. If you don't take the trouble to vote, it is none of your business whether you are governed well or ill.

CUBAN INTERVENTION.

Practically, the United States has already intervened in Cuba. President Roosevelt has addressed to the Cuban people a warning to restore the peace at once, and a reminder that the treaty of Cuban independence requires him to restore that peace if the Cubans can or will not. A threat is quite as overt an act as a blow, and with that threat our intervention begins. Following that, the president has sent the secretary of war and the acting secretary of state to Cuba, for purposes as yet not publicly defined. But it can only be either to issue orders to the Cubans, or to report facts to the president on which he can issue orders. If it is to issue orders, then those orders must be obeyed, or American troops will enforce them. Or if, as is rumored, it is to find out whether the administration of the insurgent faction really represents the Cuban people, then the United States is undertaking to determine a contested election, which is an exercise of sovereignty even more direct than intervention. It is a degree of authority greater than the central government exercises over any American state. There are several American states where it is known that no election for forty years has represented the actual voice of the whole people, black and white. But the national government has not ventured, since reconstruction times, to determine between rival state governments. If President Roosevelt undertakes to go behind the returns in Cuba, and determine which was the honest result of a dishonest election, he has taken the first step to bring Cuba back under tutelage. They hold elections in the Philippines, but American officers are that they are honestly held. The chief demand of the agitators for Philippine independence is the privilege of holding these elections dishonestly. If we undertake to make Cuban elections honest, we shall have the island as effectively under our guardianship as the Philippines are.

President Roosevelt is as anxious as anybody to keep hands out of Cuba, if he can. Let us hope he can. If the bluff he is putting up works, and scares the Cubans into temporary sanity, so much the better. If not, then the bluff must be made good, and we are in for it.

If you are not registered this year you can not vote this year. All old registrations have been cancelled and the only one that counts is the one now being made. Get on it.

MOBSNOBBERY.

Demagogic newspapers and orators, whose appeal was to the mob, made a great show of indignation when the wedding of the president's daughter was made a national and international event. They sought to curry favor with the alleged "common" people by emphasizing the fact that Miss Roosevelt was a commoner, like the rest of us, and not entitled to have any particular public fuss made over her. Wherein they manifested nothing so much as their ignorance of the standards of the mob they courted. For there is no more vulgar snobbery in the world than reigns in the hearts of the American mob. Witness the way that same president's daughter, now Mrs. Longworth, was mobbed in Columbus yesterday. That was no assemblage of self-respecting American citizens gathered to see an estimable young woman perform her humble part in unveiling the statue of the great McKinley. It was a mob of snobbish eyephants, in vulgar scramble for a chance to stare at Princess Alice. Now don't stand up and roar, "we have no princesses in this country." Of course we haven't. Persons of intelligence and elevated views, like yourselves and ourselves, know that Mrs. Longworth, her father, her associates and his, know it. They cherish no foolish notions that they are made of finer clay than the vulgar mob. That opinion is confined entirely to the vulgar mob itself. But that mob is profoundly undemocratic. It believes devoutly in social distinctions. It is convinced acutely of its own inferiority, and is flattered ecstatically by any trivial, condescending attentions from the aristocracy. It may not be called aristocracy. Our people of large prominence have no aspirations to either the name or the substance of aristocracy. There is very little snobbery in America imposed from above downward; and what little there is comes from a very insignificant and vulgar set of spendthrifts in New York. Otherwise, practically all Americans who are distinguished by achievement, learning, high position or fame, and most even of those distinguished by wealth, are modest and democratic persons, the last people in the world to care to set themselves up as an aristocracy. But they are so set up, by the vulgar adulation of the very class in whose interest democratic equality is supposed to exist. Who first dubbed Miss Roosevelt "Princess Alice"? The society columns of the Hearst newspapers; and they did it seriously too, however much sarcasm may afterwards have followed in the editorial columns of the same papers. Who reads the published back-stairs gossip from the houses of the great? Mostly back-stairs people. Whose vote can be bought for a two-cent stamp and an imitation type-written circular, assuring him that the great man is especially anxious for his personal support? The free and equal American citizen, who is flattered out of his wits by this recognition of his existence. And who mobbed Mrs. Longworth, oblivious of the honor to McKinley and the speeches and prayers they spoiled? The very mob to whom were addressed last year those platitudes about Miss Roosevelt being no better than the rest of us.

Politically, democracy still exists among us. Socially, it is cherished most carefully by the very classes who would be our aristocracy if we had one. But among the vulgarians (and their name is legion and their voice as a myriad of brazen trumpets) social democracy is as much a fiction as "democratic simplicity." They like to read about it.

There are just ten days in which to register. Register today.

ADMISSION-DAY WEDDING OF FORMER FRESNO GIRL

Miss Opal Heath Stuart, a former resident of Fresno, and more recently of San Francisco, was married last Sunday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. B. Stuart, in the latter city, to Richard N. Corey of Los Angeles. Dr. Adams was the officiating clergyman.

The Admission Day wedding took place in the pleasant new home established since the fire, and one of the few articles saved from that disaster, a piece of old lace, formed part of the costume of the bride. Many beautiful presents were received. The young couple left on the same evening for their future home in Los Angeles.

Married in Los Angeles.
Miss Lottie Conkey of 503 O street, this city, was married in Los Angeles on September 8th to T. F. Page. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's married sister, Mr. Page was formerly a clerk in the Fresno National Bank in this city, but left here last February and now holds a responsible position with the Humberger company, the biggest department store in Los Angeles. He and his wife will reside in Los Angeles.

EXCESSIVE CAR SPEED UNDER INVESTIGATION

Chief of Police Shaw Will Present Figures Before Board of Trustees.

Following the complaints of the excessive speed by the "street cars" through the city streets, which attained particular publicity by the accident to a youth on Thursday, Chief Shaw has instituted investigations and directed certain officers to make observations on their beats. Although the reports have not yet been all submitted, enough has been shown to indicate that many of the cars are running at an excessive rate. Many cases of from twenty-five to thirty miles an hour being proven.

One car on the North Park and Blackstone made the block along Calaveras avenue to M and K street at a speed of more than twenty-six miles an hour.

The cars running around the curve near the Southern Pacific depot appear to be running at a slower speed than hitherto, but one or two instances were noted where they ran at nearly twenty miles an hour.

No. 19 car of the Blackstone avenue seems to make the record run, it being shown that it has made regular trips at nearly thirty miles an hour.

Through the business center on Fresno and J streets cars are seen running along at twenty miles.

The Tulare street cars appear to be the most moderate in speed, but even there have been noted infractions of the law on speed rates of from eighteen to twenty miles an hour.

Superintendent Jenkins says these figures must be overestimated, as the cars have only a capacity of twenty-two miles speed. He admits, however, that in quiet spots and down certain inclines like the Fresno street cars might possibly run at a trifle over sixteen miles an hour.

Chief of Police Shaw has this matter ready for presentation to the trustees at their next meeting, but until then little can be done, as there is an old test case still pending upon which no decision has been made. During the time that Chief White was in office, an officer, by his orders, arrested a motorist on a charge of violating the ordinance in running at a higher speed than eight miles an hour. The case came up several times, and was finally held over. The decision is still pending, and may appear in connection with the matter to be brought forward at the meeting of trustees.

These Four Missed Yesterday's Court, But Will Have their Chance Today.

The circus celebrants have not yet left town to take up their gipsy picking, a few Indians and Mexicans lingering to absorb the last remaining coins in festive juices. Last night there were four of them.

Jose Battia was arrested by Officer Auberry for being drunk, and his friend Joe Mahoni protested so strongly against the indignity to his helpless comrade that the officer had not the heart to part them. Jose was arrested for interfering with the duty of an officer.

Miguel Sauris went broke after the circus and made up his mind to lay off for a few days and live on what was to be had for the asking. He was arrested by Officer Dreuth on a vagrancy charge.

Valentin Garcia was a mere drunk, but did it thoroughly. He was found by Officer Coyle in Chinatown.

BRYAN'S PICTURE WILL ADORN SENATE CHAMBER

High School Senators Hold First Meeting of Year.

The Fresno High school senate held its first meeting of the school year last night.

Cassell of South Carolina took the oath of office, having been elected vice-president. The election of president of the United States was postponed one week.

Under the head of new business a resolution was introduced by Liberty of Wyoming providing for the amending of the Chinese exclusion act so as to allow the Chinese to immigrate to the Philippine islands.

A motion made by Cassell that a committee of three be appointed to procure a picture of Wm. Jennings Bryan to put on the wall of the senate chamber was carried.

The names of Joseph Rice and Kirby Stewart were proposed for membership.

 Fair Saturday.

The disturbance noted yesterday over the Lake region has moved eastward beyond the limits of the United States and an extensive area of high pressure covers the eastern half of the country, with its center over Lake Michigan. Generally cloudy weather prevails over the Mississippi valley and the Atlantic slope, and light rains have fallen over the greater portion of the Atlantic seaboard and the lower Lake region. A disturbance of considerable energy covers the western half of the country, with its center over Wyoming, causing general rain over the North Pacific slope, the plateau region, the South Rocky mountain districts, Oklahoma and Western Texas. A thunderstorm occurred at Flagstaff during the night. Cloudy weather prevails over nearly all sections west of the Mississippi valley and rain is falling at Portland, Roseburg, Salt Lake and Santa Fe. The conditions are favorable for increasing pressure and fair weather in this vicinity Saturday. J. P. BOLTON, Official in Charge.

The remains of Mrs. F. H. McIntyre, who died two months ago, were removed from the vaults of Shannon & Deall yesterday and shipped to San Francisco for cremation. The body was found in an excellent state of preservation, being thoroughly embalmed on the day after her death in the county hospital last June.

The impression that the price of lumber in Fresno has advanced in proportion to the price in San Francisco is said by material men to be erroneous. Since the San Francisco disaster there has been no advance in the price of lumber, each advance being $1 a thousand. The local lumber mills are turning out lumber that meets nearly all local building requirements.

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER INSPECTS VINEYARDS

Edward W. Ehrhorn, state deputy commissioner of horticulture and county horticultural commissioner, F. C. Schell have been visiting orchards in this vicinity the past week gathering data as to the work being done to control and exterminate the insect pests. The Barton, Minnewawa, and Roeding ranches, as well as many others east of town have been inspected.

In reference to the various enemies encountered, Mr. Ehrhorn said, "The damage by phyloxera is much less than I expected, the loss being immaterial. However, I have not yet visited that section of the county where the greatest damage has been done."

"The vine hopper is becoming serious and I shall recommend the board to try and find a parasite to destroy this insect."

UNIONS WANT WEEKLY REST

Federated Trades Petition for Sunday Closing.

Movement Affects Other Fields Besides Liquor Traffic.

The union men of this city want Sunday closing. This is something that has been desired by them for several months, but it took until last night for the movement to get down to a resolution in black and white at the meeting of the Federated Trades council. That they are thoroughly serious about the matter, and fully determined to leave no stone unturned to get it by every means in their power, is shown by the action of the delegates who are now getting up a petition to present before the legislature, setting forth the reasons for their wish in this respect. The petition will be ready with signatures to forward within a few days, and it is believed that it will go direct to the center of action without passing through intermediate channels of recommendation. The paper will be gotten up by the legislative committee.

The reasons actuating the request for the closing of saloons and other places on Sunday are in no way connected, in a direct or indirect way, with the traffic in liquor on the Sabbath; nor has it anything at all to do with the recent affiliation of the Ministerial union, although some influence in the abstract may have been brought upon the movement by the delegate of that body as a unit of the council in passing his vote on the motion. What the union men aim at in making the effort, is to give everyone working for a living one day in the week to himself, any other day in the week would be impracticable, and as Sunday is recognized generally as the day of rest out of the seven, the matter comes up under the title of a Sunday closing movement.

This is intended to reach other branches of labor than the saloon employees, barbers, drug clerks, theater employees, musicians, and others being affected. Cooks and waiters, by necessity, will be left out, but ice men and other persons engaged in light refreshment will be reached.

According to the discussion which lead up to the passing of the resolution last night, all classes of labor are just as liable to come under the head of Sunday work as are the saloons, and union men employed in any branch of labor might be called upon to work for the same reason and right employed by the liquor dealers. By the passing of a law closing up commerce of all kinds for one day, it was argued, all would come under an equal code of justice, and the few would then enjoy the privileges of one day's rest in the week now enjoyed by the many.

For Lecture Series.

It was decided at the meeting that a series of lectures on subjects affecting trade unionism would be an instructive feature in the propagation of the work, and a committee was appointed to confer with a committee of the University Extension Center and make the necessary arrangements to carry out the plan, if possible. Suitable subjects will be selected and other suggestions put before the body.

The committee designated to proceed on this work is composed of Ray Baker, Robert Lechead, J. C. Brockman, H. E. Huff, and the Rev. Dr. Boyd.

Want Civic Federation.

Another committee of three was appointed to take up the proposition of establishing a law and order league or civic federation. The members will meet committees from business men of the city and the Ministerial union, and report results of their work at the next meeting. The committee appointed by the Federated Trades is composed of Robert Lechead, H. E. Huff and Robert E. Walker.

Union's Good-bye to Rev. Peck.

The council decided at the meeting that the Rev. Harcourt Peck could not be permitted to depart without receiving some acknowledgment of appreciation by the union men, and for this purpose the Federated Trades with other members will attend in a body at the services to be held in the First Methodist church on Sunday, the 23rd of this month. It is probable that speakers from the unions will make some fitting address of farewell to the pastor with expressions of esteem and thanks for his efforts in the interest of unionism.

Candidates and the Committee.

The report of the secret committee of five appointed by President Walker to investigate certain political candidates for office who were thought to have evinced a spirit of unfriendliness

WELL PEOPLE TOO

Wise Doctor Gives Postum to Convalescents.

A wise doctor tries to give nature its best chance by saving the little strength of the already exhausted patient, and building up wasted energy with simple but powerful nourishment.

"Five years ago," writes a doctor, "I commenced to use Postum in my own family instead of coffee. I was so well pleased with the results that I had two grocers place it in stock, guaranteeing its sale.

"I then commenced to recommend it to my patients in place of coffee, as a nutritious beverage. The consequence is, every store in town is now selling it, as it has become a household necessity in many homes.

"I prescribe Postum as often as any remedy in the Materia Medica—in almost every case of indigestion and nervousness I treat, and with the best results.

"When I once introduce it into a family, it is quite sure to remain. I shall continue to use it and prescribe it in families where I practice.

"In convalescence from pneumonia, typhoid fever and other cases, I give it as a liquid, easily absorbed diet. You may use my letter as a reference any way you see fit. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read 'The Road to Wellville' in plga. 'There's a reason.'

to unionism, will not come up before the next meeting, on Friday night. But the matter was discussed with animation during recess in the meeting of last night. Despite the fact that it is claimed by some that the names of the committee are known, the union men declare that no one knows anything about it but the president, who appointed them separately and secretly. Each one appointed is bound by obligations of the closest kind to maintain secrecy, and his divulging the confidence reposed in him would mean instant ostracism. No one of the five knows who the others are, but the system is so arranged that every member of the Federated Trades can report openly to the president anything he knows on the matter, without being recognized as one of the committee.

It was stated last night that many of the council who are prominent in union movements have been approached by politicians, and considerable pumping for information has been going on, but without avail. The members of the council are emphatic in their claim that the movement is done purely for the getting of good government, irrespective of party affiliations or influence; and that in accepting to favor, or rejecting as unfit, any candidate, their action will be free from personal animus or prejudice. Candidates for office who have shown that they are in the past, or who have acted at variance with the aims of unionism since their nomination, will come in for special consideration and it was to reach this class that the committee of investigation was appointed.

Reasons unrequited of are turning up daily, and if known would probably surprise candidates who are innocent of intentional affront to the union dignity. One man was seen entering an "unfair" place of business and his name is down on the black list. Another wears no union made clothing, and the committee knows of it. One more, again, said something out of the way on Labor Day, and his name is now with this president. But trivial matters like these will probably not affect the union votes so much as open lack of sympathy with the union cause. One candidate, whose name has not been learned, has come in for especial notice by reason of his sudden friendliness toward the unions since his entering the political field. It was stated among the members last night that he was in arms against them before.

Next Friday's meeting will develop some marked likes and dislikes, and the unions may decide upon making public the names of those for whom they will plead for rejection by the public.

"UNTERRIFIED" OF WYOMING

Democrats Declare in Favor of Bryan.

Platform Contains Usual Demands and Allegations of Graft.

CHEYENNE, Sept. 14.—The Democratic state convention today adopted resolutions endorsing W. J. Bryan as the triumphant candidate in 1908.

The platform demands national and state eight-hour laws, and their enforcement; favors a law making it a felony for a state officer to accept a pass or other free transportation from a railroad and demands a primary election law and a return to the Australian ballot system and favors free trade in various commodities, particularly wheat.

The platform demands election of United States senators by direct vote of the people and that lobbies appearing before the state legislature be compelled to register and state their connection with the proposed legislation.

The manner of opening the Shoshone Indian reservation is condemned, in that settlers are alleged to be confronted by a private corporation having complete charge of all the water, which was favored by the Republican state administration.

The present forest reserve policy of the general government is condemned and charges of favoritism and graft are hinted at.

The following ticket was nominated by the convention: Governor, S. A. D. Keister, Fremont county; secretary of state, Daniel W. Gill, Laramie county; auditor, Thomas A. Dunn, Big Horn county; treasurer, James L. Lohlan, Sheridan county; superintendent of public instruction, Miss May Hamilton, Natrona county; congress, J. C. Hamm, Tintah county.

Undesirable Mexican Departed.

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 14.—The Nogales Times says that Abram Jose Salsedo, president of the Douglas junta of Mexican revolutionists, has been turned over by United States Immigration Inspector Webb at that place to the Mexican authorities and taken to Hermosillo, capital of Sonora. He was deported, it is said, on the order of the secretary of commerce and labor on the grounds of being an undesirable foreigner.

Spanish Officers Fought Duel.

PROSPERITY'S FLOOD TIDE

Trade Reports Are Highly Encouraging.

Volume of Business Is Beyond Precedent for This Period.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Volume of trade continues beyond precedent for the period, the end of the vacation season restoring normal forces in most occupations, and there are no important labor struggles to handicap progress. Autumn distribution is very heavy, trade is as a rule preparing for needs well into the future, while mercantile collections are quite as prompt as could be expected in view of the light money market.

There is some uncertainty in primary markets for cotton goods, owing to the expectation of lower prices in response to cheaper raw material, but as yet no concessions are offered. Demand for woolen fabrics is also somewhat irregular, although fancy woads are withdrawn because of the well sold condition and other leading industries report great activity and strength.

The prices of commodities rose during August in the aggregate, dairy and garden products supplying most of the advance. Dun's Index September 1st being $104.287 against $102.985 a month previous. Compared with the position a year ago, the advance is 1 per cent.

Railway earnings for the first week of September exceeded figures of 1905 by 7.9 per cent.

Commercial failures this week in the United States as reported to R. G. Dun & Co. are 174 against 173 last week.

NEW YORK: Bradstreets tomorrow will say: Trade, crop and industrial reports are still almost uniformly favorable. September appears to be scoring heavy gains over the corresponding month a year ago. Official crop reports confirm previous public and private advices of large, if not record, yields. Car shortages are no longer subjects of speculation, but are accomplished facts.

Prices of staples show strength, all things considered, and are, in fact, at the highest level yet touched. All in all, the situation is very encouraging, though it is worth noting that later advices from Europe do not point to as large an outlet as was earlier expected for our surplus supplies of grain.

Business failures for the week are 104, against 121 last week, and 168 in 1905.

TO RESCUE GIRLS FROM DOWNWARD PATH

Veteran Woman Evangelist Begins the Organization of Girl Encouragement Clubs.

CATSKILL, N. Y., Sept. 14.—A plan for the establishment of clubs in various cities and towns of the country for the encouragement of motherless girls was announced last night by Mrs. Maggie Van Cott, 77 years of age, the evangelist and revival leader.

"We hope to hand together for mutual aid, sympathy and protection of motherless girls throughout the country," said Mrs. Van Cott. "Rescue missions are doing a noble work, but it will be the purpose of the clubs we are planning to reach the girls before they enter on the downward path and to safeguard them in every way. In New York, my native city, and in Boston, Philadelphia, and Chicago I expect to personally attend to the formation of the so-called encouragement clubs. I look upon this work as the crowning event of my life."

FRANCE IS DESIROUS OF SECURING TREATY WITH THE JAPANESE.

PARIS, Sept. 14.—It is declared here that there is a proposition on foot to supplement the Anglo-French entente and the Franco-Russian and the Anglo-Japanese alliances by a Franco-Japanese agreement, the conclusion of which is calculated to ally French fears relative to Indo-China. A Franco-Japanese agreement is furthermore absolutely necessary for the commercial development of the island.

Bogus Promoters Arrested.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Five men were arrested today on a charge of selling bogus bonds in various parts of the United States. They are said to have incorporated two concerns, one with an alleged capital of $1,000,000. The men arrested are Chester A. Brough, S. J. Cunningham, C. F. McGuire, George F. Johnston and A. A. Hesley.

Fraud in Bank Failure.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—District Attorney Bell, it has been learned, has been investigating the failure of the City Trust Safety Deposit and Safe company of this city, with liabilities of more than $600,000. Bell says he has discovered evidence of criminal liability and intends to secure prosecutions.

Dominican Rebels Won Battle.

CAPE HAITIEN, Sept. 14.—There has been an engagement between soldiers of the Dominican government and the rebels. The rebels succeeded in driving back the government forces, who withdrew on Haytian territory. The government losses were heavy.

JUDGE CARROLL COOK WAS IN SOME DANGER

Maniac Attempted to Assault Jurist Who Was Presiding in Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—An attempt on the life of Judge Carroll Cook was made yesterday afternoon by James Sutton, who is on trial for robbing former Coroner T. B. W. Leiland. The attack was made in Judge Cook's court room just after Sutton had been examined as to his sanity. Deputy Sheriff Jack Holland was about to snap a pair of handcuffs on Sutton's wrists when the prisoner seized them and made a dash for the bench on which Judge Cook was seated. Before Sutton could strike a blow he was knocked to the floor by Deputy Holland.

This morning Sutton was taken to the emergency hospital where he will be held pending a decision as to the status of his mind.

Worry Caused This Suicide.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—The body of Henry K. Wallpole, a wealthy Philadelphia manufacturer of chemicals, was found in the East river, New York, last night. He had brooded over the money shortage of a trusted employee in Canada and undoubtedly committed suicide.

Nominated for Congress.

DENVER, Sept. 14.—Charles W. Tew of Greeley was nominated for congress today by the Democratic convention of the First district of Colorado.

HAGUE CONFERENCE DATE IS UNCERTAIN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Although the date has not yet been definitely fixed, the second Hague conference probably will be held next May or June, according to Dr. David Jayne Hill, American minister to The Netherlands, who is in Washington on a special mission.

As a result of Secretary Root's South American tour, it is possible that nearly all the governments of these countries will take part in the second conference which was not at all certain had the conference been held as originally proposed. The representation will thus be increased from thirty nations to about forty-five.

REPUBLICANS OF COLORADO

State Convention Began Its Business.

Phillip B. Stewart for Governor on a Strong Platform of Principles.

DENVER, Sept. 14.—Republicans of Colorado assembled in Broadway theater this morning for the annual state convention and when an adjournment was taken this afternoon until 9:30 tomorrow morning had nominated the following:

For governor—Phillip B. Stewart of El Paso county.

For treasurer—Fred B. Bent of Provoers county.

Congressman F. E. Brooks of Colorado Springs was temporary chairman. He spoke for an hour, devoting most of his speech to a review of the history of the party's work in the nation, saying that prosperity always followed Republican victory at the polls and adversity invariably came with Republican defeat.

Committees of fifteen each on platform and order of business and permanent organization and a committee of seven to hear contests were appointed.

At the afternoon session reports of committees recommending that the primary face roll call be the permanent roll call and that the temporary organization be made permanent were adopted. The convention then adjourned until 9:30 tomorrow morning.

The platform reaffirms its allegiance to the national organization and its adherence to the principles promulgated in successive platforms and heartily endorses "the patriotic and fearless administration of President Theodore Roosevelt."

The Republicans of the national congress are commended for the "unprecedented amount of wise and wise legislation accomplished at the last session."

The protective tariff is credited with bringing phenomenal prosperity to the country and the development of the best sugar industry is given prominence.

The party is given credit for bringing about the "restoration of law and order."

The platform declares that 15,000 fraudulent votes were cast for Adams two years ago, and that he was never legally elected to the office of governor.

Condemnation is placed upon the "outrageous and scandalous attacks made upon the judiciary of the state, and especially the Supreme court, by Democratic organizations and Democratic platforms."

It is expressed that the Supreme court of Colorado "has maintained its dignity by bringing to its bar and punishing as a contempter a Democratic United States senator," (referring to Senator Thomas M. Patterson.

Congressman Robert W. Bonyne was renominated this afternoon by the First district Republican convention.

GANG OF FORGERS POSED AS MILLIONAIRES

Money Came Too Easy and They Gave Themselves Away By Carelessness.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Five members of a mysterious gang of forgers were arrested last night by city detectives and were locked up at the Harrison street station. The utmost secrecy was maintained by the police regarding the arrests. It is said that thousands of dollars were secured by the swindlers and many prominent banks were losers.

In the last month complaints have been received by Chief of Police Collins against the forgers. They are said to be the cleverest men ever operating in this city.

It is said that the passing of the forged paper became so easy that the swindlers became reckless and this led to their arrest. All were stylishly dressed. They would drive up to a bank in a large touring car and one of their number would enter. He would present a check to the teller, and so perfect was the signature that the money was quickly forthcoming. In several cases when the swindler was questioned one of his companions would identify him. At one bank the forgers secured $500. No trouble was experienced and other banking firms were swindled in a similar manner.

The men are said to have spent money lavishly, and in their set were looked upon as millionaires. It is probable that the sums secured by the forgers will amount to $10,000 and may go even higher.

COMPULSORY

ATTENDANCE

The Truant Pupil Has Little Chance Now.If He Persists In Playing Hook-
ey He Will Be Confined In Parental School.

The new parental school this year will be a matter of considerable interest when it gets into full operation. It is fitted up to accommodate thirty boys as boarding pupils, and this feature is an innovation. At the present time there are no pupils in the school and will not be until the truant ones who are rounded up cannot be kept in the regular schools. Herbert A. Sessions, the superintendent, and his family will live in the school.

The building is like other schools with the addition of the living quarters. Below on the right of the entrance is the superintendent's office; to the left is the school room, and back of the hall the manual training room. These rooms have not been fitted up yet, work still being in progress. When finished some fifty scholars can be accommodated.

"The plan of the parental school," said Mr. Sessions, "is to co-operate with all authorities that have to deal with wayward boys of 14 and under—the juvenile courts, school board, etc."

"The school is not for bad boys. We do not expect to take in young criminals in any sense of the word. They will be sent to the state institutions, where they belong. The school is for those boys that will not go to school."

Many times these are harmless boys, but as a general rule, you will find truancy to be the bottom of all criminal evil in youth. Our plan is to prevent as far as possible this evil. We want to get the boy before he becomes a criminal, and lead him into the right path. Many of these boys have not had a fair show in the world and really do not know what it is to be decent. If left to themselves, they soon become associated with loafers, tramps and criminals around town, and like all youth, soon begin to imitate, and before they know it themselves they have the mark stamped upon them.

"My personal work will be looking up the attendance, John Finley, probation officer of the juvenile court, and my janitor, H. D. Gross, who is truant officer, are my associates. They will act in that office and keep the children rounded up as fast as I find out the absent ones."

"My first work will be to visit the parents and with their help use moral suasion to get the child to attend school. He is not taken to the parental school. Only the juvenile court, the superintendent of schools, Mr. McLane, can sentence children to the school here. They are first given a chance to enroll in their own school. When they are sent here, they are given another chance. This will be to go home at night and come again in the morning the same as they would at their regular school, only that the hours will be longer—from 8 to 5. But if they abuse their privilege, they will be kept under close guard here, and only allowed out of the building with an officer. We have accommodations for thirty upstairs and fifty down here in the school room."

"I have already begun investigating several cases and so far have met with success, in that the child has gone to its regular school and enrolled. My hardest work will be among the foreigners; they work their children whenever possible. The Americans, however, are generally only too eager to get their children into the schools, and it will only be such cases as they themselves cannot handle that will need my attention."

PORTERVILLE CITRUS FAIR
TO BE HELD IN NOVEMBERWill Be One of the Finest Ever Held in the State.

VISALIA, Sept. 14.—Much preparation is being made for the Tulare county citrus fair to be held in Porterville beginning November 27th and continuing for five days. It is expected to make the affair one of the most successful ever given in this section. The citrus exhibit will be one of the finest ever seen in the state.

Word has been received from Frank Brundage of Farmersville, who was in the wreck of the Southern Pacific train near Ventura Monday, that he was not badly hurt and has left Los Angeles for Chicago, which was his destination when he left Visalia last week.

There was an unusually large crowd in Visalia today from all parts of the county and from Kings to attend the circus. Among the number were many Indians with their families. Several of the bucks imbibed too much fire water and got locked up before the circus.

C. S. Riley has been called to the southern part of the state by the serious illness of his wife.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Combs and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brown have returned from Brookdale, Santa Cruz county, where they have been spending some time. Miss Helen Brown will remain at Oakland to visit with friends.

LATON IN NEED OF FIRE PROTECTION

The citizens of Laton wish to have protection from fire, and for that purpose steps have been taken for the formation of a fire district. A meeting was held a few days ago at which a petition was passed around and numerous signatures were obtained. The Board of Supervisors to order the creation of the district.

At the same time nominations were made for fire commissioners, and A. G. Smith, the justice of the peace, H. D. Lindley and E. P. Blanchard were selected as the ones the supervisors should be asked to appoint for the first year.

The petition was received by the clerk of the board yesterday and will be acted upon by the supervisors this morning or Monday. The only officers of a fire district are the commissioners, who attend to the purchase and control of apparatus, and call upon the supervisors to levy local taxation to cover the expense.

Falling from a Plume.

MADERA, Sept. 14.—John Richter, who is an employee of the Sugar Pine company, broke his leg this morning by falling from the plume at Red's Flat. He was engaged with a crew in making certain repairs when he lost his balance and dropped twenty feet to the ground. Besides fracturing one of his legs, he is believed to have sustained internal injuries. Dr. Byars was summoned and the injured man is reported to be resting comfortably. Ready for Season's Work.

SELMA, Sept. 14.—There is much activity at the local packing houses in anticipation of a big run on raisins this fall. The packers say that everything in this locality has been bought up and active deliveries will be commenced in a few days as the crop is coming nicely.

The big seedling plant of the Selma fruit company will probably commence work about the 20th of this month. This plant has been increased in capacity by the installation of a large amount of new machinery and it is now said to be one of the finest seedling establishments in the state.

Mrs. Angie Barrie came in yesterday from the north. She has been away during the summer months looking after her Klondike mining interests and is well pleased with her trip. Miss Pearl Berry came down from San Mateo to resume her studies in the Selma Union High school.

UPPER COURT
PROCEEDINGSTrial of William Helm Begins Next Monday.Dan Casey, Charged With Assault, to Serve Two Years.

While the Superior Court has been almost without work during the last few days, this condition will soon end, for the trial of young William Helm on the charge of murdering William Mayes will begin before Judge Church at 9:30 o'clock next Monday morning.

The probabilities are that this trial will take at least as long as the trial of Elmer Helm on the same charge.

The case will be stubbornly fought, more particularly at the start in the selection of a jury. One hundred and fifty takersmen have been summoned, and it is understood that almost one-third of these have been excused already for various reasons. This will mean a special venire, unless the passage of time and the natural tendency of the human mind to forget increases the proportion of men who declare they have no opinion on this celebrated case.

Yesterday return was made in the county clerk's office by the sheriff of subpoenas for a number of witnesses, all of whom were on the stand in the first trial.

Two Years in San Quentin.

Dan Casey, who committed an unintentional assault upon a small boy in Reeder some time ago, came into court yesterday afternoon and pleaded guilty to a charge of "attempt." He was sentenced to serve two years in San Quentin, and will be taken north at once.

Bribery Case Goes Over.

The habeas corpus proceedings in the case of Hong Wah, the aged Oriental who attempted to bribe Mayor Lyon some months ago, were to have been heard before Judge Austin yesterday, but went over to next Monday, being set for 10 o'clock in the morning. Wah was understood to be an emissary of Lee Toy, one of the principal gambling princes in San Francisco, and offered the mayor $200 as first payment for keeping his hands off the illegal business. He was held to answer to the Superior Court, and his attorneys are now attempting to get him out on habeas corpus proceedings on the ground of defect in the lower court procedure.

Civil Cases.

W. F. McVey has commenced suit against Richard J. Bell and about seventy other persons to quiet title to a great number of lots in Bartlett Heights, Griffiths and other additions to Fresno. The property was foreclosed upon a year or two ago because of failure to pay for street work assessments, and McVey bought up the claims. This suit is the last step in the perfection of the title. Lewis H. Smith is attorney for the plaintiff.

Judge Austin's department of the Superior Court will be occupied this morning with the trial of the civil suit of Rustigan against the La Pasa Rice company. The suit is concerned with the terms of a lease of land, being brought to recover an advance payment of about $150.

Mr. and Mrs. David Carlson of Kingsburg yesterday were granted the guardianship of a two-year-old child that they have been caring for for some time. The child, Leland Hughes, is the son of J. C. Hughes, a railroad man in Los Angeles, who is separated from his wife. The consent of the father was filed. The child is to be known hereafter as Harold Carlson.

The application of the Fresno Tribune to be declared a newspaper of general circulation, it having been published in this city regularly for more than a year, was granted by Judge Church.

J. W. Dickey commenced action against the United Guardian company and the Fresno Canal and Irrigation company yesterday, through Attorney L. J. Cory to quiet title to sections 30, 31, 32 and the west half of 29, 33, 34, and section 35 and the west half of 4, 2500 acres of land in all, located to the southwest of Perrin colony.

Probate Cases.

D. S. Snodgrass of Selma was granted letters of administration and filed a bond for the control of the property of the Albert Proctor estate. The property in this county is worth about $6000, and yields $500 a year. Proctor died some time ago in England, leaving his estate to a brother and sister.

R. K. Smith, Andrew Curran and John Postreus were appointed to appraise the Theodore F. Murphy estate.

COMPANY C WELCOME
BACK THEIR CAPTAIN

Captain Spears is Tendered Over-

tion on His Return from Long Absence.

Last night's weekly meeting of the members of Company C was more in the form of an ovation to their popular commanding officer, Captain Spears, upon the occasion of his return from a five weeks' trip to San Francisco, than the ordinary drill formation. The boys laid aside their guns for one of the first times since the organization of the company, and settled down to a bright social session in honor of the captain. The entertainment included refreshments, music, speeches and songs.

Captain Spears, who has been absent on business matters, spoke long and feelingly to his men and expressed his gratification at his return, but regretted the necessity that might compel him to go back to the city at a near date. It was a matter of pleasure to the soldiers to learn that he was doing well in business, and to hear that his affairs were prospering. He was the recipient of many congratulations.

While it may be possible that Captain Spears may, later on, sever his connection with the company and permanently settle in San Francisco, his private affairs may be arranged to keep him here and he will then retain his command.

The company will go to the river tomorrow to hold their monthly shoot, and there will be some hard aiming for the medal which now remains in possession of Sergeant Dewolf, but which may possibly pass on to a better shot when he is eclipsed in marksmanship.

Next week's meeting will be followed by a social after the business session. The condition of the company is very favorable, and an open social will be tendered to the friends of the company within a short time.

AUDITING OF COUNTY FUNDSPayments Low this Month as Warrants Were Registered.

The annual monthly count of the funds in the city and county treasury has been made and certified to. The following statement of the result has been filed:

County funds, Sept. 1. $211,532.99
Receipts 3,546.38

Totals $215,079.37
Warrants paid 9,587.29

Balance $205,492.08
City funds, Sept. 1. $265,481.92
Receipts 3,511.27

Total $209,003.19
Warrants paid 16,117.78

Balance $232,875.41
Total in treasury $457,967.49

The reason for the small payments from the treasury this month is that, on account of the low state of certain of the funds, the treasurer has been compelled to register the most of the warrants.

CLUB RETURNS IN TEN DAYS

Looks Certain to Finish in Last Place.

Four-Team California League Is Talk for Organization of Next Year.

The Fresno baseball club will be home for the final six weeks of the season in ten days. This week the club is in Seattle, and so far has dropped two games of the series. Prospects are not particularly bright for winning the series. If Fresno should win the game today and the two games tomorrow, it would be something almost unprecedented, yet that is what must be done if the series goes to the Rainier Easters. Next week Fresno encounters Portland, and in view of the relative positions of the two teams, one with a cinch on the pennant and the other almost hopelessly at the bottom, prospects for an advance in the percentage column before the team returns home are by no means bright. Meantime, the Oaks are still winning, having taken the majority this week from Los Angeles. Every game won by the Oaks lessens Fresno's chances of crawling out of last place, and present indications are that the locals will finish the season a bad last.

Two Young Pitchers. Mike Fisher has signed both Lefty O'Banion and Tracy Hoag for his pitching staff. In a letter here he says that Hoag shows up like a wonder. Hoag is a cousin of Ray Tufts, the Fresno amateur, and is but 18 years old. He has played ball all his life in the Davisville country and is regarded as a whirlwind pitcher. O'Banion pitched a number of games in the league last season. He is erratic, a left-handed pitcher usually, but when he is pitching at his best few batters in the league can solve his twisters. With O'Banion, Hoag, Fitzgerald and McGregor, and with Walters to fall back on when occasion requires, Fisher has the best pitching staff he has had all season.

"All for One." President Evans of the Fresno club has received a letter from League President Bert in which Bert speaks of the appreciation felt both by himself and Cal Kwing of the San Francisco club of what Fresno has done toward keeping the league afloat. "Our motto is 'All for one and one for all,'" says Bert, "and we will stick by Fresno to the finish."

The Seattle Situation. Bert is at present in Seattle, attempting to restore peace there. Seattle, according to report, contemplated forfeiting its franchise at the close of next week, when the club is due to make another trip south. According to figures, Seattle will lose $3000 on the southern trip, even after drawing down the $1500 deposit with the league treasurer. By quitting at the end of next week the only loss will be the $1500 deposit. In other words, Seattle will save $1500 by refusing to make the southern trip. As it is practically settled that Seattle will not be in the league next year, neither Jim Agnew or Russ Hall can see where they would be justified in playing out the schedule.

Bert, however, declares there will be a Seattle team in the league till the season closes, whether the aggregation headed by Agnew or Hall remains or not. Seattle's deposit of $1500 he believes will be sufficient to carry a team along, and if Agnew and Hall quit he will at once organize a team to play the schedule out.

A nice question involved is whether or not Seattle will be entitled to any of the relief money donated by the Eastern clubs shortly after the earthquake. There still remains a small amount of this money to be paid in. If Seattle does not play the season out the league may decide that Seattle is not entitled to the $2500 which is its share of this benefit money. Any attempt to withhold this money will very likely lead to a lawsuit.

Four Team League Is Talk. The question has already been put to Evans as to whether Fresno would be agreeable to a four-team league, including Fresno, Oakland, San Francisco and Los Angeles. In the old days when the league was thus composed, save that Sacramento held Fresno's place, baseball in California paid and paid well. The game was fast, too, and the two big cities carried the smaller ones. Under the new formation general expenses would be cheaper than before, no extra railroad fare would be necessary on the trip to Fresno.

While the Fresno team is not a particularly strong one, it has the foundation for an organization that can hold its own in any minor league in the country. If Fresno is represented next year money will be raised with which to bolster up the weak places and make the team what it should be, of uniform strength throughout.

McKAY IS PLACING CONCRETE CORNERS

Permanent Monuments Will Make a Considerable Improvement.

County Surveyor Scott McKay has been out in the country south and southeast of Fresno during the last few days, engaged at the work of putting in concrete survey corners. This work has been progressing rapidly, but it will be some time before it is all finished.

The substitution of concrete monuments for the old wooden stakes is one of the reforms in land surveying that is of particular importance. The wooden stakes are so liable to disturbance as to be causing continual trouble and expense to the owners of the land. A recent statute of the state legislature made provision for the concrete monuments. They are cylindrical in form, six or eight inches in diameter, and three feet in length. The exact corner is denoted by a spike driven into the cement and marked with the initials of the surveyor. No ordinary farming operations can disturb such a point of record. This law was fathered by Assemblyman Chandler at the session of two years ago.

UNDECIDED AS TO WHICH GAME

Rugby or Football is the Question at High School.

Fresno Should Take the Initiative in Deciding Question for Valley Teams.

One of the most important questions among the high school boys this month is, What kind of football will be played in the high schools?

In reference to this subject one of those interested in athletics at the school said: "As yet nothing has been decided as to which game we will play in Fresno. Of course it will be necessary to follow the other schools in the valley and take up whatever game they decide upon, unless some of our fellows get together at once and take the initiative. Certainly we of the Fresno High should take some stand in the matter, and I think that if the fellows would get together at once and decide what game they will play, the other schools throughout the valley would follow us."

The game of Rugby is not known to any extent on this coast, and while the universities are going in for that game, it is not necessary that we in the high schools should follow. There is, however, one reason why we should follow the universities and learn the game. For the universities depend upon the prep for new material and the fellows in these schools that take up Rugby will stand a better show for the college teams than those that stick to the old game.

"Another question, if the American game is taken up, is whether we shall follow the rules of last year, or the new rules to be used by the Eastern colleges. The football men are divided on these three plans, and it is up to them for the good of the school to decide at once which they shall choose. Fresno is certainly big enough and strong enough to take the initiative in such affairs."

Student Election Held. After school yesterday the student body held the election of officers for the ensuing year. The election was very brief and quiet, all officers being filled by acclamation except that of treasurer. Robert Collins and Robert Ballagh fought it out for this office, Ballagh winning out with 103 to Collins' 85 votes. Those elected were: President, Melvin Johnson; vice-president, Ed Einstein; treasurer, Robert Ballagh; secretary, Miss Freda Olufsen. Two teachers, Mrs. Crane and Mr. Newell, were unanimously elected to act with the above officers as an executive board.

THIRTEEN WHO DRANK FORTIFIED LEMONADE

Bunch Before Briggs As a Result of the Circus.

Judge Briggs heaved a sigh of relief yesterday when he disposed of the last case on his docket for the day. There were thirteen of them as the result of the circus alone, with several others who had been left over to cool off from the preceding day. With three exceptions, the bunch were either Indians or Mexicans, and of the trio one was a negro. George Pickett, the negro, had been to the circus and acquired a mean jargon afterwards. As he was passing along Tulare street he ran into Donato Accetti and Chio Phajui, Italians. Neither of the three would pass the courtesies of the road, and the question of right of way ended in a fight. The Italians claimed that they were blameless. They were fined $5 each and the negro got 15 days for sleeping on the car track. Indian Jim and his spouse engaged in a marital fight after the emptying of a bottle outside of the circus grounds and were turned loose with a hunter of 30 days which will probably be sufficient to last over until next circus day. Joe Charlie and Joe John, grape pickers, were awarded a life sentence. Tom Seledad and Joe Merino, who were taking a nightnap from a bottle of flavoring essence after cleaning up a couple of pints of whisky, promised to go back to the mountains and stay there, and got the chance under a penalty of 30 days each if they showed up again. Mack Walker, who works on the West side, was released early in the morning, on the plea of his employer who gave him a good name.

Of the others, there were Pete Jim Hunter, who wanted to tell the judge something but did not know how to do it. Sam Johnson, Joe Garcia and Mike Alvarado, who pleaded that they only happened once a year, and Joe John, who begged the confiscation of a pint of gin more than his plight as a legal captive. All of them were passed out floaters of from 20 to 30 days.

TO PROTECT FROM FLOOD

Frank H. Short Makes Suggestions to Mayor.

Calls Attention to Importance of Diverting Overflow from Canals Near City.

Mayor Lyon has received from Frank H. Short calling the attention of the mayor and Board of City Trustees to the importance of doing something to protect the city from the possibility of overflow from the ditches and the creeks that last spring poured their water into the Enterprise canal north-west of this city and threatened to flood the spring awake many people to the real danger of a flood that confronts Fresno—not a flood that would do any damage to life or limb, but a flood that would do a great deal of property damage. The city engineer was compelled several times to patrol the banks of the canal with a band of men to take every precaution to keep the water rushing within an inch of the top through the ditch channel from breaking through. There was some talk then of getting the city to take steps for its protection, but when the danger was over, interest was lost. Mr. Short calls attention in vigorous fashion to the necessity of doing something. His letter is as follows:

September 13, 1906. The Honorable Mayor and Board of Trustees of the City of Fresno.

Gentlemen—Some months ago some preliminary investigations were made as to the feasibility of constructing from Dry Creek and including Dog Creek, a waterway or storm channel whereby the waters of those creeks could be conveyed into the San Joaquin river. You are well aware that on several occasions during the past winter this city was on the verge of being flooded and would have been flooded at least three times, except for several fortunate circumstances and except for the fact that the storms happened to be divided up in such a way that the capacity of the canals was just sufficient to carry off the storm water. I am informed that property owners along and in the vicinity of Dry Creek are arranging to levee in their lands to prevent their being overflowed. This they probably have a right to do. Certainly the canal company cannot interfere with their doing it and probably the city could not, and if this is done much larger quantities of water will be carried down and the canals will be quite unequal to the carriage of as much water as was flowing in those streams on several occasions last winter. In the event of a flood reaching this city, which would inevitably be the case in the event of any unusually heavy storms of long duration, the damage to this city will no doubt be several hundred thousand dollars as a direct loss and the indirect damage could not well be estimated. In addition to this, large farming districts and valuable property is flooded in the country, and the country roads are much damaged. After looking over the country with the engineers of the city and county, I am satisfied that the proposed storm channel can be constructed without any engineering difficulties and at nominal expense compared with the damage which is likely to be done if no provision is made for protecting the city against flood. I should think that the whole work might easily be done, so that practically all danger to this city from flood and including the outlying country, could be avoided, for $30,000. Of course, the estimates should be accurately made by the engineers. The estimate above suggested, however, includes the expenses and rights of way as well as for the construction of the storm channels. I think that such channels and works should be constructed in a thorough and complete manner, and as to remove all reasonable danger of future floods in this city. The only provision the city has ever made against floods, so far as I am advised, is that some years ago some $6000 was expended in enlarging the banks of the canals in order to give them greater capacity to carry storm water. The carrying of the water in this way, however, is at constant risk to the city, injurious to the canals and frequently results in damage to adjacent property and is neither satisfactory to the city nor just to the property owners whose property is damaged or endangered by this process, and you will understand, of course, that no one is interested in carrying this storm water in the canals except the city and land owners whose property would otherwise be flooded. During such storms the persons irrigating from canals do not wish or desire to use the water and it is simply wasted at the end of the canals and in the outlying districts.

The circumstances considered, I think it will be very unfortunate and an oversight that will in the future be very greatly regretted if definite proceedings are not taken and the work is not done to insure the city against overflow. No doubt the county for the protection of its roads and outlying property would be willing to contribute reasonably towards the work, but the expense in any event is so small compared with the necessity for consideration ought to be to get the work done as promptly and thoroughly and cheaply as possible consistent with good work.

Respectfully submitted, FRANK H. SHORT. Mayor Lyon said last night: "A great many people have spoken to me about this matter, and it is unquestionably something that we ought to take up. The trustees would, I am sure, be glad to get information and to hear suggestions as to what is the best course to pursue. I would suggest that any persons having suggestions to make or possessing any information of value to us should come before the board at a regular meeting and address us."

The proposed storm channel referred to by Mr. Short is the one inspected by County Surveyor McKay and City Engineer Hoxie, running west a few
